

50 Ways to Volunteer

1. Join PTA	2. Take down/hang up student work	3. Take down/hang up bulletin boards	4. Make copies	5. Sharpen Pencils
6. Stuff Friday Folders	7. Read a book to the class	8. Staple Papers	9. Cut and staple take home books	10. Monitor students during center time
11. Prep center activities	12. Homework help before or after school	13. Label classroom materials	14. Organize books in classroom library, games, art materials	15. Use flashcards with individual students or small groups
16. Coordinate classroom parties	17. Bake or purchase treats for a class party	18. Fill goody bags for a class party	19. Play games with small group of students	20. Chaperone field trips
21. Help set-up school events	22. Listen to students read one-on-one	23. Assist/monitor students on the computers	24. Be a guest speaker	25. Play math games with individual student or small group
26. Pull apart Scholastic magazines	27. Assist students with special projects	28. Check books out/return book set the library	29. Take pictures of a special event	30. Print materials for a special event
31. Cut out laminated materials	32. Assemble binders and/or student portfolios	33. Make play-doh (PreK-2)	34. Help monitor lunch/and or outdoor recess	35. Help in a specials class (P.E., Music, Spanish, Art, Library)
36. Cut things on the paper cutter	37. Cut things at home using scissors	38. Make die-cuts for bulletin boards and projects	39. Repair books, games, and other classroom materials	40. Organize, clean, and replace, classroom materials
41. Help with the hug-and-go in the morning	42. Volunteer to help with school events (music concerts, family nights, field day)	43. Volunteer to help Mr. Reese with Monkey Club	44. Help with afterschool programs (art club, spelling bee, etc)	45. Make phone calls to families to remind them of upcoming school events
46. Volunteer in the work room helping with work orders	47. Put together homework packets	48. Assist with fundraisers	49. Collect recyclable materials for classroom crafts and projects	50. Make take home kits for students who are struggling in a subject